Frisbie Memorial Hospital's Mission

Frisbie Memorial Hospital is a not-for-profit community hospital that evaluates and addresses the comprehensive healthcare needs of Rochester and surrounding communities. In response to these healthcare needs, the hospital coordinates, develops and provides high quality, affordable, preventive, educational, acute and chronic care services regardless of one's ability to pay. The hospital regularly seeks ways to improve the health status of the citizens of the communities it serves.

Frisbie after expansion is complete

Rochester, New Hampshire is located in the state's scenic seacoast region. Rochester is known as the "Lilac City" because of the spectacular lilacs that bloom in the spring, and is the fourth largest city in New Hampshire. Nearly 30,000 people call Rochester home. Living in Rochester means you can enjoy a satisfying career while still having time to pursue leisure activities and volunteer for charitable and community activities.

At Frisbie Memorial Hospital, our people are special. Talented and highly trained physicians, nurses, allied health clinicians, and office support personnel comprise our staff. Frisbie Memorial Hospital's dedicated men and women are committed to serving the health care needs of the greater Rochester area.

With access to the latest medical technology—including one of the region's first 64-slice CT scanners, an Electronic Medical Records System, and a Patient Archival and Communications System—we are able to deliver some of the finest care in the region. That's why so many people trust their care to us, and why so many professionals choose to work at Frisbie.

We offer employees challenging and enjoyable careers in a geographic location that provides the best of New England living, just minutes away from the Maine and New Hampshire seacoasts as well as the New Hampshire Lakes Region, known for its pristine lakes and close proximity to the White Mountains. Our employees enjoy rewarding careers while raising their families in a community that offers outstanding educational, recreational, and cultural opportunities.

Frisbie's First Impressions Initiative

Frisbie Memorial Hospital employees are linked to one another by a common purpose, our commitment to teamwork and customer service. Together we continually develop trust with our patients, our community, and each other. To strengthen this bond, we agree to adhere to the commitment to work as a team and to always excel in our customer service policies. We each perform our job in a responsible and caring manner by pledging the following:

"Before we see a patient, we see a person."
